Project: School of Knowledge Production and Transfer for Global Economy and Governance (SKOPE4GEG), 18-COP-0032

The project partnership has been created in view to put together an experienced HEI from donor state (IS) and a HEI from Romania, both specialised in providing higher education and training programs and the National Institute for Scientific Research for Labour and Social Protection, specialised in studying the labour market and occupational standards. The cooperation between the partners aims to build up professional tools in order to better connect the education with the world of work for new positions. The training modules that we are developing within the project are increasing the employability of the students on the world of work by acquiring additional qualifications.

The project SKOPE4GEG started on September 1st, 2019
and will be finished on August 31st, 2021
Budget is 100 949.00 Euro
